Happy Holidays to All,

The Fall season is drawing to a close, the Holidays are within sight. The advertisements are telling me this is going to happen. The year in review is a very mixed bag. The question is/was how do we go forward? Many of us are questioning the news we hear almost every day. The Masonic Fraternity has Always been on the forefront of applying and using our common sense. Now is not a time for the Fraternity to be hesitant. Can we, shall we honor our fraternity, and be the leaders our obligations incline Us to be. We have heard the adage "The Time is Now", how we respond will be the legacy we leave our Brethren.

The season is nearly here, I feel we had a very interesting and successful year. I would wish each of you a safe, healthy, prosperous new year. We have many obstacles to work through, and pursuits we shall Address for our future. The future of our fraternity is in our hands. We should not be found wanting for The future of our Fraternity, Valley and Lodge. "Spes Mea in Deo Est." "My hope is in God." My trust is in Our Brotherhood.

I wish all a very happy healthy Holiday season, May the blessings be all you ask for, may the peace which we all hope for be yours.

Happy Holidays
 Peace and Understanding
 Fraternal Greetings to All
